

Inspectors' Report Read At Meeting Of High School Board

The pupils of Newmarket high school are deserving of congratulations for their capable work in preparing material for a special issue of The Newmarket Era and Express during Education week. Special commendation is due to the editorial staff, whose editorials and leading articles would do credit to more experienced writers. It is gratifying to find such encouragement of student responsibility, and to learn that the many student activities now in operation are soon to be co-ordinated under the leadership of a student council.

The above was part of a confidential report of secondary school inspectors C. W. Booth and N. Davies to the department of education, following their visit to Newmarket high school on Nov. 18 and 19, 1946. The report was introduced at the meeting of the Newmarket high school board on Monday night, and released by the board for publication.

Concerning accommodation, the report noted that the principal's office, the gymnasium, and one class room had been completely redecorated. "All other classrooms have been partially redecorated and their decoration will be completed in due time. It is recommended that the basement walls and floors be painted with suitable concrete paint. A red color is recommended for the floors. The gymnasium floor has been resurfaced and waxed. It will receive further treatment in the near future. All classrooms have been provided with 300-watt bulbs to improve the lighting. As the redecoration program proceeds we recommend that the ceilings be decorated with light-reflecting paint and that a survey be made of present lighting facilities. Filing cabinets have been placed in all three commercial rooms."

The report said that there was a total enrolment of 346 pupils, of which 154 were boys and 192 were girls, 169 were from the high school district, 174 from the county, and three were from other counties.

"The enrolment has increased by 22 since the previous inspection. Only five classes have an enrolment of more than 30 pupils; form 10A being the largest, with 42 pupils. The allotment of time is generally in accordance with department recommendations. The distribution of subjects among the staff is equitable. The assignment of subjects to the teachers was discussed with the principal. Art and music are both offered in the lower school. Due attention is being given to the course in guidance. A commercial course and a commercial option are provided in grades 10, 11 and 12. Agricultural science is taught in the lower school. Additional equipment for this work is being ordered."

Commenting on the qualifications of the staff, the report said, "Permission has been obtained for Mr. Herman G. Fowler to teach music in grades 9 and 10. Mr. George McNelly has evidently qualified for his interim high school assistant's certificate, and will receive it in due course. All other teachers are legally qualified for their present duties.

"The standard of teaching in this school is good. Teaching methods are generally conducive to pupil activity. We made some suggestions regarding methods, especially to new members of the staff. It is hoped that these may lead to further encouragement of pupil participation and, in some cases, to more extended oral work."

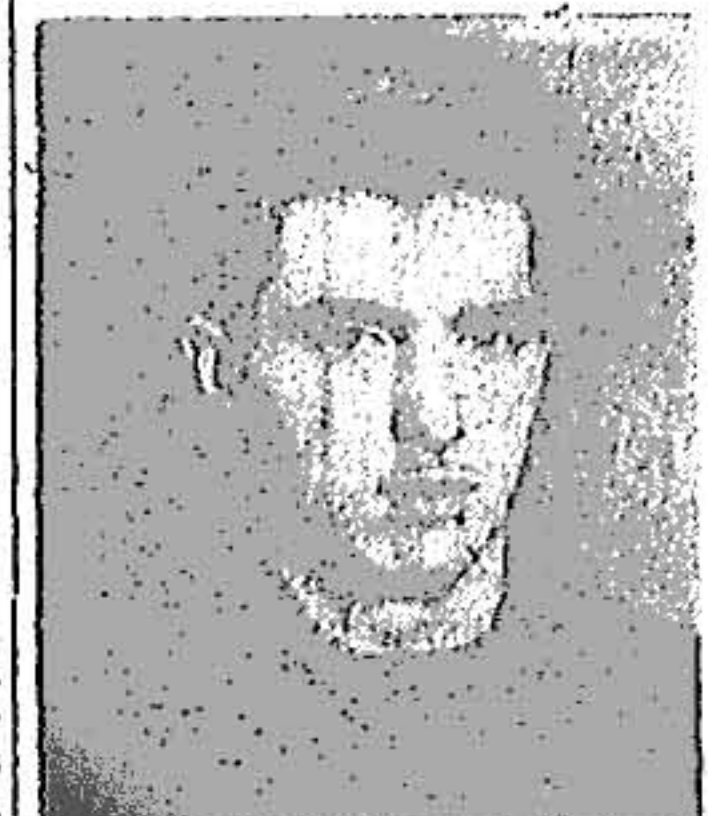

Concerning the pupils themselves, the report said, "Pupils appear to be industrious and interested in their work. When challenged they respond readily. However, their oral work could be improved with respect to audibility and good sentence form. Written work is quite good, though in some cases penmanship may be improved. Notes appear to be original and generally concise and informative. Assignment sheets, prepared by commercial pupils, are being properly employed for the work in history and English grammar."

The report went on to note that the principal was unable to devote some time to observation of the classroom work of the staff. "He makes a careful record of his observations and communicates his general impressions to members of his staff," the report said.

ATTENTION SKIERS!
If 23 or more skiers are interested and will get in touch with Chester Beat tonight at The Best Drug Store to purchase their train tickets, a ski train for Collingwood will stop in Newmarket Sunday morning at 9.15 a.m. It will return in the evening.

W. R. HILL, 23, IS SWORN IN

Following in his father's footsteps is William Ross Hill, sworn in last Friday morning as Constable.

WM. R. HILL

stable in the town of Newmarket by Magistrate W. E. McIlveen. William Ross Hill, Sr., is a county constable in the village of Sutton.

Constable Hill comes to Newmarket after three and a half years' service as a private in the Army Service Corps. He went overseas on March 12, 1943, with the third medium regiment platoon with the 81st Artillery Coy. The platoon was put under the 87th Artillery Coy, when the 81st went to Italy. The 87th was later dissolved and made into the 82nd Artillery Coy., from which Pte. Hill was transferred to Crase Headquarters. He saw action in France, Belgium, Holland and Germany.

On Sept. 4, 1945, Pte. Hill married the former Bridget Hayes, an Irish girl who was nursing in England. He returned to Canada on Feb. 12, 1946, and for seven months worked at the Sutton Dairy as a milkman. He joined the Newmarket police force on Dec. 17, 1946.

Constable Hill is 23 years of age, stands an even six feet tall, and weighs 155 pounds. He was born in Sentiluda, Sask., and educated at Queensville public school and Sutton high school. He worked in Torrens' grocery before joining the army on Nov. 3, 1942.

Old fashioned Aunt Effie doesn't believe elevators have been perfected and walks up the hotel's 12 floors. ## LOCAL MIDGETS PROVE POWER WITH VICTORY OVER HILL SENIORS

By GEO. HASKETT, JR.

Newmarket Legionnaires, local midget representatives, proved conclusively at the Newmarket Ice Palace on Monday evening that they are the team to beat in North York. The local mites came through in fine style to record a 12-2 victory over the visiting Richmond Hill seniors. The win was number three for them as they rematched the only undefeated squad playing under the canal town banner.

It was an action-packed first period. Doug Bunn, on a nice shot from the right boards, put the Legion into the lead at 6.59. From there on the Hill kids never had a look in. Fred Hill's whirlwind front-line trio of Laurie Thomas, Don Gibson, and "Red" Duncan played a merry tune on the score sheet throughout the contest. This trio collected no less than 14 scoring points. Thoms led with five goals and three assists. Gibson had two goals and two assists, while Duncan garnered two goals. It was a treat to watch this line perform, setting up a passing attack that completely baffled the Hillers.

One Newmarket counter was by way of a gift, as the Richmond Hill blue-line operator resorted to throwing his stick at Grant Firth coasted in on the Hill cage. Referee McCabe awarded a goal to the Legionnaires.

Fred Hill's kid line of Ron Coveney, Bill Smith and "Pepper" Martin kept things humming when they were out with a never-say-die spirit. "Red" Wilkins and Grant Firth looked the best of the defence corps. Andrews, a Sharon product, had an easy night of it in goal.

Whirlwind Attack Is Doubleheader Feature

By GEO. HASKETT, JR.

Another whirlwind assault on the part of Hoffman's star-tudded team featured the opening game of the "merk" doubleheader Tuesday. Hoffman's won an 8-3 verdict over Langstaff Combines. The win proved beyond a shadow of doubt that Hoffman's will be tough to beat out for the mercantile honors and the right to represent the league in O.H.A. intermediate play-downs.

"Ginger" Groves was top goal scorer, turning on the red light on three occasions and adding an assist. Herbie Simpson chalked up two, Stevens two and defenseman Joe Megani got credit for a singleton.

Jack Fipps, with two, and Willie Peck, with one, collected the scoring points for the vanquished. For that matter Fred Morris' Langstaff squad were never much in the hunt once Hoffman's got into stride.

On the attack Hoffman's worked out a smart passing attack. Defensively they were very powerful, Joe Peat, Joe Megani and Cliff Gunn thumping all comers. Mickey Smith was a stone wall between the pipes.

The Hoffman team executive was out in full force to watch its club perform. Ken Howard, Charlie Boyd, Bert Peterman and Bob Maguire, team mentor, were loud in their praise of the team's performance. For the record, the team recently humbled the Sutton intermediates 9-4 right in the Lake Simcoe village.

In the nightcap the rejuvenated Oak Ridges crew lashed out with its revamped squad to defeat Roche's Point 7-2. The visitors from down south, presented a changed line-up from their first game here last week. Herbie Rose, "Whitey" Jones, Alf Cody and "Mickey" Sutton now perform under the blue and white Ridges colors. Rose was strong defensively, while the others combined for three scoring salies. Doug Kerr marked up two and Chuck Taylor added a single.

Roche's Point's helter-skelter line was responsible for the team's showing on the score sheet. The checking and the soft ice slowed up the play somewhat. There were lots of spills and a couple of near free-for-alls to keep the fans on their toes.

Harold Mills will lead his Richmond Hill gang into town next Tuesday for a set-to with Hoffman's. It will be a single game.

"Merk" League Standing.

	W	L	Pts
Canadian Hoffman	3	0	6
Oak Ridges	2	1	4
Roche's Point	1	2	2
Langstaff	0	3	0
Richmond Hill	0	0	0

Newmarket Jrs. Defeat Markham For First Win

By GEO. HASKETT, JR.

They "dood it." Who? Why the Redmen juniors. They came up with their first win of the current junior hockey parade. Who did they beat? Their old rivals, the Markham Green-shirts. When? Monday night. Where? Newmarket Memorial Arena. The score, 5-4. It was an especially sweet victory as it moved the Redmen out of the cellar in the group standing. It sent Markham tumbling down there. Up to this point the Markies haven't checked it with a victory.

It was a close-checking game. The first period didn't produce much in the way of good hockey. The locals breezed into a 5-2 lead in the first and second period activity.

There were thrills and there were spills. Coach James Markies got better as they went along. There were penalties. Plenty of them as a matter of record, seven to Harry Thoms' boys, 11 to Markham. Many of the penalties had bearing on the final outcome. Three Redmen got tickets to the sin bin at the 13-minute mark. It nearly turned their 5-2 lead into a victory for the Markies when Jim Rutledge, "Motts" Thoms, and Ronnie Eves all got the thumb within a minute of each other.

The Markies opened their offensive and had two goals in less time than it takes to say Jack Robinson, if anybody wanted to say it. Hill got the first, Hooker the second. The canal town boys weathered the storm and held onto their slim one-goal margin. Their blue-line work was terrific. Bob "B. A." Walker and Ken "Bugs" Broughton played most of the 60 minutes. Their work was super. Clarke "Lucky" Kemp snagged two goals, and his wing-mate, "Motts" Thoms, also got two. Jack "Blondy" Davis speared the other, with Ronnie Eves assisting.

Ken Tuppling, the latest recruit, guarded the twine for the first time. He made it a winning start.

Howie Forgie was the best man on the ice. He was here, he was there, he was everywhere, fore-checking, back-checking and double-checking. Hill was sensational, too, in the Markham cause. Let's give the locals a cheer. Nothing would be sweeter than a victory over Stouffville comes to town Monday to engage the Redmen.

Many Mourn Death Of J. Harry Fee, 54, Buried Here Jan. 11

Funeral services were held on Saturday for J. Harry Fee, for many years a resident of Newmarket prior to World War I. Mr. Fee was in his 55th year when he died as a result of a heart seizure.

Born in Washington, D.C., Mr. Fee was the son of Mrs. Fee and the late James Fee. He spent his boyhood days in Mount Albert and received his education at Pickering College. He went overseas with the Canadian Expeditionary Force (Infantry) and later transferred to the Royal Flying Corps. When the war ended he was serving in Palestine in an administrative capacity.

While in Newmarket prior to the war, Mr. Fee worked at the Office Specialty Mfg. Co. Following his discharge, Mr. Fee became a special representative and sales-manager of the Super Health Aluminum Co., with headquarters in Hamilton. In 1930, he married the former Rose Doyle, Newmarket, a boyhood sweetheart.

In 1933, Mr. Fee went to Sault Ste. Marie, and became associated with the Harrington Dairy. Later he became owner of the business. Active in the Board of Trade at the Sault, the Kiwanis club and in church circles, Mr. Fee was widely known also for his untiring efforts in the Canadian Legion. He was member of the executive of Branch 25 for a number of years, and served as its president in 1943, 1944 and 1945.

At the Legion convention held in the Sault in 1945, he was elected first vice-president of the provincial command. In 1946, he was chairman of the July First Committee, and played a large part in the success of the Legion's Dominion Day program. He was also chairman of the building committee, of the welfare and employment committee, and a member of the finance committee.

He was commanding officer of the Sault Air Cadet Squadron, a past president of the Sault Board of Trade, and president of the Sault Kiwanis club at one time. He was also a past president of the Sault Retail Merchants' Association, and a director of the Ontario Board of Trade and Chambers of Commerce.

He is survived by his wife, his mother, Mrs. Mary Fee, and one sister, Mrs. May Fitzgerald, Los Angeles, Cal.

Eves, Ray Jolley, Roy Flanagan, Wesley Brooks and Frank Smith, all of the 127 Infantry Battalion, W. T. Burke, secretary of the provincial command, Tom Magladyen, past president of the Ontario command, and L. B. Williamson. Interment was in Newmarket cemetery.

Financial Statement Is Read At Board Meeting

OLD BOARD

The inaugural meeting of the Newmarket public school board was held on Friday night following a short meeting of last year's board that saw the business of last year cleaned up.

During the meeting of the 1946 board, R. L. Pritchard, secretary-treasurer of the board, read the financial statement of the board for the year just ended. He said that after the outstanding cheques had been cashed, the board would have a bank balance of $27.33, as compared to a bank balance of $145 at the end of 1945.

Provincial government grants during 1946 totalled $16,988.95. Mr. Pritchard said. The town levy totalled $19,600. Interest amounted to $1.64. Non-resident fees totalled $935. Separate school fees amounted to $12 and $12.15 was received miscellaneous. Total receipts were $36,949.19.

The cost of instruction to the board was $23,143.78. The cost of instruction supplies was $608.22. Total cost of administration was $444.17. The cost of school plant operation was listed at $8,895.68. The cost of plant maintenance was $3,140.26. Cost of auxiliary agencies was $198.60. Interest amounted to $1 while capital outlays totalled $398. Total disbursements were $36,921.86. The resulting balance was $27.33.

C. Morden Carter reported that he had received no official word about the projector that has been ordered by the board. He said that no fittings had as yet been purchased but that this would be taken care of immediately.

H. A. Jackson, supervising principal of the three schools, reported that W. Dobson had ordered the supplies that he needed for his manual training classes. He said that the pianos had not been tuned but that he would get in touch with the tuner on Saturday.

Mr. Carter said that he had received no reply to his request for prices on educational trips. L. H. Bova, chairman of last year's board, said that only 16 of the seats that were ordered had been delivered. R. L. Pritchard said that he had been in touch with the company from which the seats were ordered and had been told that delivery would be made in the near future.

Mr. Carter reported that an evaluator had gone over all of the school buildings and had recommended an increase in insurance coverage of 43 percent.

NEW BOARD

Following the final session of the 1946 school board, the inaugural meeting of the 1947 public school board was held. The new board consists of Rudy Renzius, Dr. G. E. Case, C. Morden Carter and Mrs. N. L. Mathews of the old board and Fred A. Hall and J. B. Bastedo who were elected to the board this year for the first time.

Rudy Renzius was elected chairman of the board for 1947. C. Morden Carter was elected vice-chairman. The board appointed Mrs. O. P. Hamilton as attendance officer at a salary of $275 a year, $25 more than he received last year. R. L. Pritchard was re-appointed as secretary-treasurer of the board, also at a salary of $275, $25 more than he received last year.

R. D. Brown was re-appointed as the public school board's representative on the high school board for a one-year term, while Mrs. W. R. Stephens was re-appointed to the public library board for three years. Dr. Case, Mrs. Mathews and Mr. Carter were appointed a nominating committee and after a short meeting they brought in the following committee recommendations:

Finance committee, Messrs. Carter, Bastedo and Hall; property committee, Mrs. Mathews, Messrs. Carter and Bastedo; management, Dr. Case, Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mathews. The recommendations were accepted by the board.

The meeting date of the board will be the second Friday of each month.

Mr. Jackson reported that Herman G. Fowler, music teacher in the three schools, had approached him with a proposal for a public school music concert to be given by a mass choir of 200 public school children with the possible assistance of the Newmarket Citizens' Band, the concert to take place if possible at the Newmarket arena on May 30. Mr. Fowler estimated that a series of ten one-hour rehearsals would be necessary, one hour a week for ten weeks beginning March 17. He said that a definite place and time to rehearse would be needed, along with concert music that he estimated would cost in the neighborhood of $175. A reliable accompanist would have to be hired for each rehearsal and arrangements made to have four teachers on hand to assist. A special platform, special lighting and special seats would be needed at the arena. Mr. Fowler estimated that a revenue of $500 could be obtained from the concert.

NEW PICKETING LAW NOT MENTIONED

The Financial Post last week headlined a report of proposed federal labor legislation which is to be brought before parliament when it reconvenes. According to the Post, the new act is intended to supplement the wartime order-in-council, PC 1003, and contains some of the recommendations of the house committee set up during the steel strike last summer to enquire into the causes of industrial unrest.

The Post says that the major differences between the old measure and the proposed bill is the granting of specific rights to management, rights formerly implied or unstated. One improvement, from the employer's point of view, is his right to apply for a vote to determine whether the union still represents a majority of his employees.

An argument against the "closed shop" is that it is possible for a union to continue as a bargaining agent in perpetuity even though it ceases to represent the majority of the employees. The above provision in the proposed legislation would act as a check against it. The Post states that this provision is a modified version of the secret vote recommendation of the parliamentary committee.

Other provisions prevent organizing during working hours, give penalties for breach of contract by employer and employees, and the naming of a Superior Court judge as referee to investigate employee complaints of discrimination. Nowhere in the Financial Post report, however, is there any reference to picketing law, the revision of which was also recommended by the house committee.

As the law is now on the books, it is illegal for pickets to prevent the access or exit of non-striking personnel. Yet in recent major strikes, striking workmen made an airtight picket line a major phase of their strategy. In some instances, efforts were made to open the picket lines by forceful action. In other instances, notably at Hamilton, there was no attempt to enforce the law.

Because of this inconsistency, strike strategy has developed into a case of getting there first with the most. Union leaders reason that the larger the picket line, the less chance there is that police will act to enforce the law because of the numbers involved in any subsequent street fight. If a law cannot be enforced in its present form, then it must be changed immediately or struck from the books. A law that can be broken serves only to encourage lawlessness.

HIGH SCHOOL FOR COMMUNITY USE

Recreation projects went ahead by leaps and bounds in 1946, and it looks as if that progress is going to be continued in 1947. In February, the Newmarket Dramatic club plans to compete in the drama festival at Hart House, University of Toronto, and if successful there, will go on to Dominion-wide competition at London, Ont. Even the club's most enthusiastic boosters didn't expect such rapid advancement this year. The Newmarket Music society has also laid plans for a concert in the near future, and it, too, should excite much comment.

The Newmarket high school board has made a signal contribution towards fostering recreation projects with the opening up of school facilities to non-school groups, beginning with the revived badminton club. The board made known its policy before Christmas when it told a delegation from the Newmarket Community Recreation Council that it would co-operate in every way possible provided that arrangements could be made for supervision on behalf of the board to see that any privileges in the use of the school were not abused. This difficulty has now been overcome by the employment of a second caretaker.

It is unfortunate that the use of the high school in the past by non-school groups has not always been successful. There are those individuals who would treat public property with the greatest of disrespect, never realizing in their carelessness that the damage they might do has to be paid in part from their own pockets through taxes. At the same time, insurance regulations on the school are strict and must be enforced. In the past, different school boards have perhaps over-emphasized this aspect in limiting the use of the school by non-school groups, but the provision of a school employee to be on hand at nights is a happy settlement of the problem.

TO THE EDITOR

Letter to the Editor, The Era and Express: As a humble citizen of this town, I would like to see war veterans, both men and women, receive a gift from the town in appreciation of the many sacrifices they made and the hardships they went through during the war years overseas. I believe this is the only town for miles around that has not given its returned veterans some reward for the wonderful way they fought for our freedom.

Let's we forget, R. Laker, Citizen.

Newmarket, January 13, 1947.

With the board's co-operation in opening up the school to non-school groups, there is an opportunity to provide adult study groups, evening lectures, and classes of all sorts as well as athletic activity. It is now up to the recreation council to take the lead in providing them.

MUST DISCRIMINATION BE CONTINUED?

Judging by the radio commercials that the public has been forced to listen to in recent years, it seems that it has become axiomatic in advertising circles that adverse publicity is better than no publicity at all. Perhaps it is on the basis of this questionable logic that the management of one place of amusement in Toronto continues to grouse public resentment by a discriminatory policy that leaves tolerant-minded people cold.

For the third time within the space of a year the management of Icelanda skating rink in Toronto has laid itself open to public indignation by practicing discrimination of race or color. It is true that these men are by no means the only offenders. A University of Toronto student was recently banned from competing in a basketball tournament, because the tournament was being run under "American" rules that forbade his participation. That the group who ran the tournament submitted to such an intolerant American viewpoint made them an equal party to the fault.

After being invited to sing at the Granite Club in Toronto, Marlon Anderson, noted contralto, was refused admission to the club because of her color a few months ago. Instances of discrimination have been on the increase since the end of the war, and are likely to continue so unless something is done to retard them. Unfortunately, the Racial Discrimination Act, passed in 1944, has never been interpreted to mean that such discriminatory practices are illegal. The argument against such an interpretation has always been that it would violate a democratic principle, that to say to a theatre-owner (for example), "You must admit this man to a performance in your theatre regardless of his race, creed, or color," is to violate the democratic principles of ownership.

Yet these discriminations that are being practiced today violate every other principle, democratic or Christian, that regulates the lives of the people in a democratic state. The Racial Discrimination Act as it now stands reads: "1. No person shall (a) publish or display or cause to be published or displayed or, (b) permit to be published or displayed on lands or premises or in a newspaper, through a radio broadcasting station or by means of any other medium which he owns or controls, any notice, sign, symbol, emblem or other representation indicating discrimination, or an intention to discriminate, against any person or any class of persons for any purpose because of the race or creed of such person or class of persons."

It is to be hoped that either an amendment will be made to this act in the near future, or that the present act will be interpreted to forbid the acts of discrimination being openly practiced today.

USE OF TOWN HALL MUST BE LIMITED

With the provision of a second janitor at the Newmarket high school, the high school board is in a position to enable non-school groups to make greater use of the high school facilities. The Newmarket badminton club is using the gymnasium weekly, and there is no question that the board's policy also includes a wider use of the auditorium.

In the past, the Newmarket town hall auditorium has been the only one regularly available to the dramatic club and similar organizations. The arguments in its favor are the acoustics, its size and its central location. The objection to its use is that the building is a potential death trap. Should there be a panic when there was a large audience in the town hall, its inadequate exits would be turned into slaughter pens by the rush of people leaving the hall.

The property committee of the Newmarket town council recently completed a thorough inspection of the town hall and we understand that the reactions of the members were generally that the building should be condemned. It is to be hoped that there will be speedy action. The building has increasingly frequent use with a corresponding greater risk to those who use it.

Until there is a definite decision on the town hall, either outright condemnation or provision of safe exits, it is to be hoped that those who would ordinarily use the auditorium there will transfer their activities to the high school, despite its disadvantage of size and location. A smaller audience, if such should result, is not to be compared with an uneasy conscience.

At the same time, those disadvantages may be put to use in encouraging action on the construction of a memorial hall such as has been mooted for the past several years. The argument favoring a delay in the construction of a new hall is that building costs are too high at present. There is nothing to prevent, however, the initiation of subscription lists, the drawing up of plans, the choice of the site, being done now.

The town hall must be replaced. Let there be action now, instead of talk.

25 YEARS AGO

From The Era and Express files, Friday, Jan. 20, 1922

The firemen's annual banquet took place in the town hall on Tuesday night with 60 or 70 being present. The banquet was provided by the Rebecca Lodge and was a most enjoyable affair. Music was supplied by the Newmarket orchestra. Mrs. Goring won the ladies' prize and Mr. Chas. Smith the gents' prize in euchre.

The first meeting of the public school board met on Monday evening with Messrs. Broughton, Scott, Manning, Boyd, Davis and Wilkinson present.

Several Newmarket people attended the poultry show in Bradford on Thursday. Mr. Mc-

50 YEARS AGO

From The Era and Express files, Friday, Jan. 15, 1897

Hon. E. J. Davis has communicated with various municipalities in North York, suggesting the advisability of securing Mr. A. W. Campbell, the government road instructor for several meetings. Several letters have been received in reply to this suggestion and we are anticipating the time when Mr. Campbell can visit our vicinity.

TWELFTH NIGHT

By GOLDEN GLOW

Let's Hear Last Week!

Yesterday was what they call Twelfth Night or Old Christmas in Europe. The evening of the twelfth day after Christmas and what, in ecclesiastical circles, is known as Epiphany. Yes, Epiphany, when the three wise men were led to Bethlehem by a star, the Magi of Bible fame. They are a precious part of the Christmas story. The mystery of it all thrills us anew every year.

But on Twelfth Night everyone is supposed to burn up his Christmas decorations, or otherwise dispose of them. At any rate they are supposed to clear them all away and in the olden days Twelfth Night was a night of feasting and rollicking and in the enormous fire place, as a grand finale, they burned the Christmas tree which had been the centre of the festivities of Christmas since December 24. The old legend has it that it is very bad luck indeed for that household who does not observe the ancient rule of clearing away all traces of Christmas on Twelfth Night, including the Christmas greens, the holly and the mistletoe. Yes, the mistletoe has lost its charm for another year, for it is only at Christmas you can steal a kiss from anyone you catch under the white berries in a sprig of mistletoe—it has lost its magic till December 24, 1947.

You feel rather desolate in a way, when you recall all the beautiful Christmas trees in every home nearly, and think that they are now only a fragrant memory. They are "clucked out" into a snow bank and there they sit so forlornly, usually at a rakish angle—awaiting the garbage collection. Folks never seem to learn that the collectors do not take Christmas trees, that we must dispose of them ourselves. I guess the big fire places of olden times were the best way after all—have a party and make a ceremony of burning up the tree! Then we won't see them for well after, getting rustier and rustier, in back yards—oh, what a fate for the beautiful Christmas trees!

I still recall with pleasure a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Renzius, Prospect Ave., last week. Their Christmas tree was gorgeous—shining with silver icicles and glowing with blue lights. Blue and silver! It stood in front of the fire place—just the right size and proportion, a perfect tree to begin with, but when it had all its Christmas trimmings it was a dream. The imitation snow along its branches reflected the piles and piles of snow out of doors. Here in Newmarket on our side streets the snow is still snow, pure white and beautiful. The traffic hasn't turned it into dirty, grimy slush as in the cities.

We surely had a "white" Christmas—and the January thaw so far this year (listen to me—the year is only six days old as yet), hasn't materialized, but don't worry, we'll have it sooner or later. The January thaw is like a tin can tied to a dog's tail. What do I mean? Well, you see it's bound to a cur! (Pardon the pun). Yes, the January thaw is bound to occur, it has never failed in all these generations so far as I know. It may be delayed because the "sun dogs" were out in their beauty on Sunday in the late afternoon and those miniature rainbows we have in the winter mean continued cold weather. This week the weather is exactly what we like in winter, what we call good winter weather, but last week it was not at all to our taste—it was what the weatherman called "bitter" weather and it seems to well describe it. We were all more or less miserable and didn't know why. Maybe it corresponds to what we call humidity in the summer—the humidity that makes the heat so unbearable.

Well—as you can see I have so little to write about that nobody will bother reading it. It must be the feeling we get after all the festivities that we must settle down now and get to work. But the memories of our Christmas goose, New Year's turkey, the mince pies, the Christmas cakes and cookies, the plum pudding with fluffy whipped cream sauce, the cranberries, the chocolates, nuts, candies and raisins, the dates, figs and oranges—and all the goodies we associate with Christmas—and which never seem to have the same flavor when eaten at other times. Well, let us keep our pleasant memories of this Christmas and look forward to another delightful Christmas in 12 months' time—or to be exact, 358 days!

There is one little memory I'll keep till next year, and that is the delightful straw goat that is a part of the celebration of Christmas in Sweden and which Mr. and Mrs. Renzius brought with a piece of wood flew from a circular saw and struck Jack Doyle in the face, inflicting an ugly wound.

On Sunday morning Mr. B. Hulst was hurriedly summoned to the field where some sheep were pasturing. Upon arrival he found that eight lambs had been badly torn by dogs.

On last Wednesday afternoon Mr. A. Orton's residence was the scene of a pleasant gathering, the occasion being the marriage of Etta Orton to Sam Faris, Bradford.

THE COMMON ROUND

By ISABEL HUGHES COLVILLE

BOOKS AND HOUSES

Have you ever thought how much a book is like a house? That just as you gain some idea of the personality of the people living in a house by the house, so when you open a book and look over its situations, its conversations and its environment, you form—rightly or wrongly—a distinct impression of the author?

If a house looks as if it is lived in with enjoyment, if there are signs of pleasant occupations and hobbies, if there is warmth and cheer, you feel the occupants get something worth while out of life and that they will, in all probability, be kindred spirits.

But if you go into a home where there is a spotlessness so perfect that you feel your very presence is a desecration, then there is not much hope of finding congeniality. Or perhaps you enter a house where gloom seems to reign supreme—you feel a smile is out of place—a laugh a sacrilege.

Long ago, and far from here, I went to call on a girl who was a fellow solist in the choir, but whose family I had not met because they were comparative newcomers. The house was large, and I was shown into a drawing room which had, at one time, been three rooms. Now it ran from the front of the house to the back. It was a beautiful room—but cold. I don't mean chilly altogether, although it was that, too, for the day was cold, and the temperature inside was less bearable than that. It was a deeper chill one felt—as if there was no life in the room—nothing ever done there.

There was a piano, but it looked as if it had just come from the warehouse. There were no signs of work, no books. It was just a room. I was in it often afterwards but it never lost its frigidity, and I felt it didn't like me.

That might recommend it to some people, but, for my own part, I cannot see the use of having a room that has no purpose other than their home in the land of the midnight sun. It is made of a little sheaf of straw, so cleverly done and so realistic, with plaited horns, legs of a few strands all so simply done and yet so expertly. It is so unique that I'll think about it, I know, till I see it again next year if I am lucky.

in life, it's like burying a talent in the earth and you know what was said about that.

Well, with books I feel the same thing. Some books warm you—invite you to become better acquainted with them. Then, when you have read them happily, they exert a compulsion which makes you perfectly sure that your home will never be the same till you possess them and add them to your library, which wasn't bought in a day, but, like Topsy "just grew."

I never buy a book except a mystery story, which I have not read and thought worth reading over and over. Some of the new books I have as much use for as I would a pet snake. Others are well worth while, but few of them hold enough for me to make me yearn to possess them. A few I have which I cherish, but invariably I go back to some old love. Even if you have to wade through a lot of descriptive literature to get at the kernel, when you get there, you find something so worth while.

A young friend said to me that he was reading Kenneth Worth and got bogged down in the long descriptive passages. I told him that even at his age I did a deplorable thing—skipped a lot—which, of course, I warned him he should never do! Never—no, never. Well—hardly ever.

But I still maintain that houses and books are similar. They either invite us in and make us at home, or they repel us and we say, "No thank you." I think the author or authors of a home—not just a house—are as greatly geniuses as the authors of great books. Both influence what ever lives they come in contact with, and both stand for something serene, pure, cheerful, and best of all, lasting.

Recent sleet and wind storms in Niagara and Western Ontario areas, brought down whole sections of both steel-tower and wooden-pole Hydro lines. This picture shows how ice-laden trees and limbs broke, fell across Hydro lines and forced them to the ground.

WINTER RAMPAGE!

When King Winter makes an all-out attack, man can do little but repair the damage as fast as possible. Recent power breaks in Niagara and Western Ontario areas were the direct result of unusual and severe storm conditions.

Because of the flexibility provided by its unified, province-wide organization, Hydro was able to rush emergency repair crews from other parts of Ontario to restore power. Every effort was directed to this end.

To all consumers who suffered in these storm areas, Hydro expresses its thanks and appreciation for their patience and understanding in a difficult and trying situation.

At all times Hydro safeguards service by endeavouring to locate lines free from trees and by tree trimming. Present storm damages illustrate the necessity of these methods.

During this winter period, storms and power shortage present great operating problems for Hydro. Your co-operation in the conserving of power will be of material assistance and much appreciated.

ASSAULT CHARGES ARE PROMINENT IN COURT

Harley Fizzell, Schomberg, was fined $100 and costs in magistrate's court on Friday when he was convicted of having liquor in his possession other than that acquired on his own individual permit. Magistrate
W. E. McIlveen presided.

On Dec. 13 Constable B. Burbridge testified that he and Constable W. J. Meyers had previously entered the premises of the accused on a search warrant, and had found one unopened case of beer, one open case of beer, and one bottle of liquor.
The premises consist of a grocery store and lunch counter downstairs, with living quarters both downstairs and up, according to Constable Burbridge's testimony.

Called by Joseph Vale, counsel for the accused, John Letwink, a boarder at the Fizzell home, had testified that the open case of beer belonged to him. Byron Brown testified that he had bought the unopened case and had left it at the home of the accused because he intended to spend Christmas with him and because Brown's housekeeper objected to his having beer at home.

Magistrate McIlveen said that because the public had access to the living quarters connected with the grocery, the premises were a public place and the accused was not entitled to have any liquor there whether bought legally or not.

"You will have to board up the entrance by which the public have access to your living quarters before you can have any liquor there," Magistrate McIlveen said.

Clarence Sedore, Keswick, was fined $20 and his driver's license was suspended for another six months when he was convicted of making a false statement on an application for a driver's license, dated May 27.

Evidence given by Constable Burbridge was that accused had been convicted on a driving charge in 1940, and his license suspended. When his suspension was up he had been notified by the Department of Highways that he could apply for another license, provided that he first submit a statement giving proof of financial responsibility. This he failed to do before obtaining the new license in May, according to Constable Burbridge, and therefore the suspension was still in effect when the new license was obtained. The charge was laid by Constable William Burke following investigation of an accident at Sutton.

Peter Stevenson, Baldwin, was fined $10 and costs after he refused to sign a bond to keep the peace with Ivan Bailey, Baldwin, following conviction of a charge of common assault laid by Bailey.

Bailey testified that he had been standing on the verandah of McCarthy's store in Baldwin talking to a friend when Stevenson's son began to antagonize him. He said that he had told the boy to be quiet or he would report him to his father. The lad continued his taunts, according to Bailey, and when his father arrived upon the scene Bailey told him that his son wanted to pick a fight.

"He replied 'So do I' and threw me off the verandah into the mud. He told me to get out of there and that if I ever came around Baldwin again he would black my face," Bailey said.

Mrs. Bailey testified that she had been in the store across the road and had heard the commotion. She said that she had heard Stevenson threaten to "black" Bailey's face if he ever came around Baldwin.

Stevenson testified that when he went up on the verandah, he told Bailey that if he left the boys alone there would not be any trouble. He said that he did not touch Bailey and that the latter had jumped off the verandah.
He also denied having made any threats. Calvin Coomer, 19, corroborated Stevenson's story.

Magistrate McIlveen asked Stevenson if he would be willing to enter a bond to keep the peace toward Bailey for a year, and when Stevenson refused, the fine was imposed.

A youth, also charged with assaulting Bailey, was given a week to enter a $200 bond to keep the peace. He asked for an alternate fine when he heard the fine imposed against Stevenson, but was told he would have to wait until his remand was up.

Mrs. Caroline McBain, Lloyd-town, pleaded not guilty to a charge of common assault by striking Mrs. Lillian Sampson, Schomberg, on the mouth with her fist. She was remanded a week for judgment.

Evidence revealed that the two women work in a poultry-cleaning plant, and that the alleged assault arose out of an argument concerning the respective duties of the two women.

Mrs. Sampson testified that she had been picking fowl and that Mrs. McBain, who works at the "pinner" kept coming over and hanging chickens on one of the picking racks, which she was not supposed to do. "I told her to go back to the pinner where she belonged and she struck me in the mouth with her fist, cutting my lip," Mrs. Sampson said.

Mrs. A. Herrington, Lloyd-town, testified that she had seen Mrs. McBain strike Mrs. Sampson, although she had not seen or heard any preliminary argument.

Robert Walker testified that he had seen Mrs. McBain strike Mrs. Sampson, but he said that he had not seen any cuts on Mrs. Sampson's lip. He said that Mrs. McBain did not hold a position of authority in the plant.

Mrs. McBain testified that she was supposed to hang the chickens on the racks but that as fast as she did so, Mr. Sampson took them off. She said that Mrs.
Sampson had kicked her on the shin.

Mr. McBain, who works at the same plant, described the whole affair as a "tempest in a teapot."
He said that neither woman had any authority to do what they had done.

J. H. Gould was fined $5 and costs for failing to signal when turning left on No. 11 highway near Oak Ridges. He pleaded not guilty. Constable Victor Proctor testified that he had investigated an accident and that at the January 9—Snow, snow everywhere. The snow plows hardly get the roads open when they are filled in again.

Children are all back at school again. Their Christmas holidays went quickly.

Mrs. Lloyd Stiles arrived home from York County hospital on Monday with her new daughter.

The community was saddened by the death of Robert Stiles at York County hospital on Monday.
Mr. Stiles had lived in the township all his life until a year ago when he and Mrs. Stiles moved to Queensville. He had not been in good health for some time.

The church social that was to have been held on Friday night at the home of Wm. Mould had to be postponed because of road conditions.

The meeting of the Women's Guild will be held at the home of Mrs. Percy Brown on Tuesday, Jan. 21, at 2:30 p.m., when election of officers will take place.

time, Gould admitted that he had turned without signalling.

Gould testified that when he was about 300 feet from the corner he turned the window down in order to signal, but the car behind was so far back that he did not deem a signal necessary. The truck he was driving stalled in the snow, he said, and the car behind collided with the rear of his truck. He had never been convicted before.

Alex. Emmett, King, R. R. 3, was remanded for one week on charge of failure to file income tax returns for the years 1940, 1942, 1943, and 1944. Lorne C.
Lee, prosecuting, introduced evidence to show that accused had received a notice requiring the returns to be filed. He said that the case had previously been adjudged to allow the accused to file the returns. He also pointed out that the accused had been prosecuted last year for failure to file his 1941 return. At that time he was convicted.

Kenneth Joy, South River, was fined $5 and costs for operating a truck after dusk and before dawn with no lights illuminating the license plate in the rear. Provincial Constable William Melbourne laid the charge.

Ronald Fraser, Lansing, was fined $10 and costs or ten days for carrying a firearm for the purpose of hunting game without a license to do so. The charge was laid by game warden Ernest Proser.

George Barrett, Toronto, was fined $5 and costs or ten days for travelling 50 m.p.h. in a 30 m.p.h. zone on Yonge St. Constable B. Burbridge laid the charge.

Frederick Nicholes, Chatham, was fined $8 and costs on a speeding charge laid by Provincial Constable William Melbourne.

IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT NOTICE Respecting Price Control

The Wartime Prices and Trade Regulations (Order in Council P.C. 8528 of November 1, 1941) established basic period maximum prices for goods and designated services. These regulations were passed under the authority of the War Measures Act and continued in force under the National Emergency Transitional Powers Act, 1945.

From time to time these basic maximum prices have been varied or the fixed maximum has been suspended in the case of particular goods and services by Orders issued by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board under the authority of the above Regulations. A few days ago a substantial number of suspensions from price control was announced.

I believe it is desirable therefore that a summary should now be published of those goods and services on which a legal maximum price remains in force under the provisions of the Wartime Prices and Trade Regulations so that all citizens may be given an opportunity to inform themselves of the law.

The complete price control regulations are contained in Wartime Prices and Trade Board Order No. 684 which is available to the public at any office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, and to which reference should be made for exact details.

Douglas A. Ross
Minister of Finance.

QUEENSVILLE Held Eulogies In Aid Of Community Rink Fund

Misses Betty and Leta Milne spent some holidays recently with their sister, Mrs. J. Connolly, Lindsay.

The following ladies, Mrs. Willard Cole, Mrs. E. Stickwood, Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mrs. Fred Weddel and Mrs. Angus Smith, attended the W.A. convention in Trinity United church, Toronto, on Wednesday, Jan. 8. Mrs. Willard Cole was installed into office as second vice-president of the conference for 1947 and 1948.

The regular meeting of the W.A. was held in the United church basement on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Wm. Williams gave a splendid talk on Jesus In The Home. The financial report was read showing a goodly balance after monies had been paid to many worthy causes such as the Victor Home for Girls, Fresh Air fund, Missionary and Maintenance fund, and flowers and fruit for sick in the community. Two hundred dollars was also paid to the church treasurer. After Mrs. W. Cole, president, closed the meeting, dinner was served by the following hostesses: Mrs. F. Weddel, Mrs. R. Strasser, Mrs. S. Eves and Mrs. V. Mount. Tea receipts amounted to $14.

A good crowd gathered at the school for a eulogy on Friday night. Some of the players came from Newmarket, Keswick and Holland Landing. Ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. J. L. Smith; second, Mrs. L. Johnston; men's first, Mr. Ray; men's second, John Harper. Lucky number for groceries was held by "Babe" Tate.

These eulogies in aid of the rink fund will be held every other Friday night.

The young people from the Newmarket Free Methodist church enjoyed a skating party on the Queensville rink on Thursday night. Through the generosity of Bert Boyd the rink is open to the public school children free of charge every Saturday afternoon.

The church service was well attended Sunday morning. Rev. A. Millen's sermon was Our Talents And Making Use Of Them. A beautiful New Year's anthem was rendered under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Smith. Fourteen young people were installed into office for the Young People's Society to act for this year.

Among those visiting their homes over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Cam. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kavanagh, Miss Ruth Stickwood, Miss Ruth Smith and Mr. Clair Smith, all of Toronto.

Mrs. Ewart Mainprize and Margaret visited Mrs. Mainprize's sister in Toronto over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Greig, Toronto, were at the home of Mr. Art Greig for Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Wm. Greig returned to Mr. Art Greig's after visiting her niece, Mrs. Walter Rose, Ravenshoe.

We understand the Lead-bettors are established in their new home and that Raymond Crouch has bought the one they vacated.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cole, Aurora, were recent guests at the Hulce home.

Glad to report Jack Graham at Christie Street hospital, Toronto, is improving nicely.

Mrs. Percy Boag is improving slowly after a serious operation in York County hospital.

Mrs. Jacob Terry, the oldest resident of Queensville, died suddenly at her home on Monday, Jan. 6, in her 91st year. She was formerly Elizabeth McGentry and was born in Newmarket on March 8, 1856. The daughter of the late Daniel McGentry and Isabelle Colt, her life previously to her marriage was spent at Holland Landing.

She was a Presbyterian and in former years took an active part in church activities. She possessed a keen memory and could recall many examples of progress and many events of historical interest.

Her husband predeceased her ten years ago. Surviving is one brother, Dec, who has made his home with her for 62 years.

Rev. Millen of the United church conducted the funeral service on Wednesday, Jan. 8. Interment was in the family plot at Queensville cemetery. Pallbearers were J. B. Aylward, C. Burkholder, Wm. Burkholder, A. Alexander, W. Henry and W. Huntley.

Those attending the funeral from a distance included Mrs. E. Caldwell, St. Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Darragh, Miss Francis McNab, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. O. Luck, Barrie; Mrs. E. Arnold, Hamilton, Mr. D. McGentry and family of Keswick and Mr. and Mrs. M. McKelvey, Keswick.

KESWICK IS 21ST CONSECUTIVE YEAR AS SECRETARY

The annual congregational meeting of the United church, held January 8, elected J. E. Baines, F. A. Morton, Wm. Davison and Jas. Clark to be stewards for a three-year term. In 1947 these men will serve with eight others whose terms have not expired. It was decided to put the eldership on an elective and rotary basis, commencing at the end of 1947.

The following were elected to be elders, O. M. King (clerk), Robt. Hamilton, Erwin Winch, Ryan Switzer, Perry F. Winch, Sr., Ross Sturdy, Isaac Walden, Geo. Hamilton, P. J. Cole, R. J. Pollock, Geo. White, Jas. Wright, Isaac Morton, Ewart VanNorman, W. V. Redditt and Victor Atchison.

Trustees for 1947 are O. M. King, Frank F. Marritt, Erwin Winch, P. W. Mahoney, P. J. Cole, Dan McGentry, Geo. Hamilton, G. W. Rigler, J. E. Baines, Ewart VanNorman, Angus King and the chairman of stewards.

Other elections were as follows, organist, Mrs. Harold Pollard; choir leader, Miss Eva Gilroy; asst. choir leader, Mrs. Leslie Morton; ushers, Wm. Davison, Harold Pollard, Roy Pollock, Geo. White, Gordon Harper and Donald Winch; communion table committee, Mesdames J. E. Baines, White, Walden, Grant and P. J. Cole; auditors, Fred Peel, Cecil Grant, W. V. Redditt; publicity committee, Ryan Switzer, P. W. Mahoney, Wm. Davison and the minister; M. and M. committee, Erwin Winch, Geo. White, O. M. King, the secretary and the treasurer of stewards.

Previous elections of officers by the Sunday-school Young People's Union, Women's Missionary Society and Women's Association were confirmed. Church finances were reported to be in a satisfactory condition. In addition to the regular local and missionary funds, amounts were raised from the Bible society, Ontario temperance federation, religious education council and United church pension fund capital campaign.

Mr. Ryan Switzer, acting in his capacity as secretary for the annual meeting, did so for the 21st consecutive year. Rev. Gordon Lapp presided.

The first meeting of North Gwillimbury's 1947 council was held at the Community hall, Belhaven, on Monday, Jan. 6. Four of the members of the 1946 council were back in their chairs. Clarke Martin occupied the chair held so long by James Nelson, who retired following the nomination. The council was pleased to see Mr. Nelson among the visitors who turned out for the meeting. By request of the reeve, Rev. Gordon Lapp opened the proceedings by reading from the Scriptures and offering prayer.

The recent heavy snow falls and stormy weather brought forth a couple of complaints regarding snow-plowing service. Representatives of the township's up-and-coming hockey players appealed to the council for support to keep the spirit going, and the council was asked to consider giving assistance to the Canadian Legion's building project at Sutton.

Considerable time was spent discussing the snow-clearing situation. Buying a plow to mount on the township truck was proposed but not approved, as it was thought the truck was not heavy enough to be of much use on the job under present conditions. It was finally decided that arrangements should be made to operate the present equipment night and day to catch up with the work, and if this were not sufficient some outside equipment should be brought in to assist. It was pointed out that this year a number of people are living, for the winter, in different sub-divisions of the summer resort area, and that they are demanding that roads be opened which had never been plowed in winter before. Keswick hockey club and Reche's Point hockey club were given donations of $75 each. The Legion matter was left over for future consideration when the council hoped to have a better understanding of the project.

Council approved payment of $300 balance on the plumbing equipment installed in the Community hall. This work has been completed and has made a great improvement in the hall. The new furnace is still one of those things to be hoped for. It was agreed that cash prizes should be donated for township pupils taking part in the oratorical contest sponsored by York county.

Further payments approved were: W. A. King, sheep claim, $17; Frank Marritt, sheep claim, $12; E. J. Bosworth, valuing sheep, $2; D. Cooper, valuing sheep, $2; membership fee, Good Roads Association, $5; county of York, hospitalization, $60.01; R. L. Boag, list of sales, $3.00; Reporter Printing Co., $5; Fred. Peel, registrations, $7.25; Fred. Peel, telephone calls and sundry payments, $42.02;

Coroner Disagrees When Jury Finds Death Accidental

Aurora Lions Junior Team Shuts Out Newmarket 4-0

Urge Development Of Individual--Dr. Boulding

Coroner Disagrees When Jury Finds Death Accidental

"Sweet, you are a very lucky chap. The jury has taken a lenient view of the facts. I'm sorry but I can't agree with them," Coroner Dr. C. J. Devins, Aurora, told Norman J. Sweet, Holland Landing, following a coroner's jury verdict on Monday night. The jury had been investigating the death of 14-year-old Gordon Andrews, Oak Ridges, killed on the highway on December 20 by an automobile driven by Sweet.

The inquest got underway at 8.15 p.m. and 17 witnesses were heard. The jury brought in its verdict at 12.45. The verdict was that "the accident was due to adverse weather conditions and no blame can be attached to any one."

Crux of the evidence was whether or not there had been a car on the highway that Street had turned out to pass just prior to the accident. Sweet and his two companions, Earl Atkinson and Kenneth Harman, Holland Landing, said a car had suddenly loomed in front of them on the highway and that they had turned out to pass it when the boy appeared in the path of the car. Witnesses on foot could not recall such a car, although none had seen the actual accident, but they had observed within a few seconds prior to and after the accident.

When asked by the coroner if the jury had believed that a car such as Sweet described was on the highway, Foreman J. H. Knowles said that the evidence, in the jury's opinion, did not prove whether one was there or not. He said that the jury had given the driver the benefit of the doubt.

"I don't believe the car was there. I must make a report to the Crown contrary to your verdict," said Coroner Devins.

First witness called was George McIntyre, Oak Ridges, who identified the body. Dr. G. W. Williams, Aurora, who performed the autopsy, said death had occurred from severe shock, an internal hemorrhage as a result of a ruptured kidney and a break in the vertebrae of the neck. Dr. Crawford Rose, who attended at the time of the accident, said that an attempt had unsuccessfully been made to secure ambulance service at Aurora and Richmond Hill and one had finally been secured at Newmarket. Medical aid, however, could not have saved the boy's life.

Sixteen-year-old Jack Andrews, brother of Gordon, told of meeting his brother on the highway. Gordon was bringing his hockey equipment from his home and was walking north on the west side of the highway, Jack said. Jack had been off the pavement and his brother had been walking just on the edge of the pavement, he said. He had not seen or heard anything until he heard "what sounded like a flat tire," and then he saw his brother fly through the air and the car crash into a pole ahead. Hans Styrmo, a neighbor, told of measuring the skid marks. The car had gone about 80 feet from where the boy's cap had been found to where the body was lying in a ditch about ten feet off the highway. It was needed correction. He said he felt that boys and girls do not necessarily need the same educational program, since their ultimate aims in life were entirely different. This should be developed in secondary schools, he said. "Education should be a process of development by which each individual is fitted to give the greatest possible service to the community and country in which he lives," Dr. Boulding concluded.

Donald Webster introduced the guest speaker, and Mrs. Stephen Komar moved the vote of thanks. Rod V. Smith delighted those present with two saxophone solos, and Roland Modde gave a splendid interpretation of Drummond's Chere Emmeline. The meeting approved the purchase of shoe laces for skates for the school children at the arena. The picture contest for the class having the most parents in attendance was won for the third straight time by Delroy Babcock's room.

Ministers Send Letter To Council Protesting Action

A copy of the following letter addressed to the town council of Aurora was received by The Era and Express on Tuesday afternoon.

Gentlemen: The following resolution was unanimously passed at a full meeting of the ministers of the town of Aurora held Monday afternoon, Jan. 13, at the home of Rev. A. R. Park, with instructions that a copy be forwarded to you and also to The Era and Express for publication.

Moved by Rev. L. R. Coupland and seconded by Capt. B. E. Stevens:

"That we, the ministers of the Town of Aurora, do hereby enter a strong protest regarding the council's action in opening the rink for skating on Sundays. We do so on the following grounds:

"That apparently no thought or consideration was given to the fact that several church schools are carried on during those hours.

"The ministers of the town who have the moral and spiritual interests of Aurora at heart and who on many other questions have been consulted in the past and whose services have been requested in movements sponsored by the council in the past, were given no opportunity to express their judgment on a matter directly affecting their work.

"That we have very grave fears as to where this action may lead in other matters, namely, that it may be only the thin edge of the wedge for further encroachments on the keeping of the Lord's day as a day of rest and worship.

"That already some congregations in the town have registered their protest and signed petitions to that effect."

We would, therefore, respectfully request the privilege of meeting with the members of the council at its earliest convenience to discuss the wisdom of the action taken in this matter.

Thanking you for an early reply, I remain

On behalf of the ministers.

Yours truly,

Ernest C. Modde,

Aurora, Ontario,
January 13, 1947.

Over 300 People Enjoy Sunday Afternoon Skate

Over 300 people enjoyed the free skating at Aurora arena on Sunday afternoon. Records provided music for the fun.

"Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves, and there was a great deal of favorable comment," said Councillor Stewart Patrick. "They enjoyed an afternoon of clean, wholesome recreation, and everyone conducted themselves well. The crowds will be bigger as the season goes on."

John Reid, Seven, Killed, Expect Inquest Of Accident

Seven-year-old John Reid, of the 10th concession of King, died on Saturday when struck by a bullet from a friend's rifle. Young Reid, in company with his two sisters, Patricia, 18, and Joan, 10, had been tobogganing. When they grew tired of this sport, the trio set out for home. They met three youths, Walter Sapusak, 24, Stanley Barrack, 10, and Frank Adrilla, 18, who resided in the neighborhood. The six young people were walking along the highway together when young Reid ran ahead of the party. In some unexplained manner, the rifle carried by Barrack went off, the bullet striking John. The lad was taken by toboggan to the home of William Bredon. Adrilla ran ahead to telephone for medical aid.

Dr. M. K. Dillane of Schomberg rushed to the Bredon home and removed the boy to a Toronto hospital, where he died shortly after being admitted. An inquest is expected to be held.

John was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reid, of the 10th concession of King, near Nobleton.

'Milroy Was Here' As Markham Downs Vets

Coach Larry Molyneux will be at the helm tonight when the Newmarket Vets take on Sutton Greenshirts and perchance he will find the win column again at Newmarket arena. "Molly" missed the last two games through business commitments but his presence wouldn't have spelled the difference between victory and defeat and, like Mr. Cassidy of Allen's Alley, he'd have probably felt "terrible, terrible" after watching the Markham Millionaires flash their speed and unleash a passing attack that had the fans a bit bewildered at times.

Last Thursday night, before a crowd of over 900 fans, the Markies took a 7-2 win from the Vets right in Newmarket and the following night they blasted out a 13-3 win in their own hallowed over the tired Newmarket boys. The score did not indicate the closeness of the play in either game, but there's no gainsaying the fact that the Millionaires had a good edge in both contests.

After Thursday's game Doug May might well have written on the dressing-room blackboard, "Milroy was here," for it was the veteran Harry "Whammy" Milroy who paced the visitors to their win. Milroy scored three goals himself and garnered an assist, besides playing a fine defensive game. Jackie Watson, Nick Bangay and Austy Baker weren't far behind in effectiveness either, but there wasn't a weak spot in the Markham line-up.

Although Markham was the more dangerous on the attack, the Vets held their own with the visitors in the first period. A loose puck in the Newmarket end-zone was picked up by Bob Lawrie, who made no mistake. Don Smith just failed to get the equalizer on a brilliant effort a few minutes later. The Vets had the odd man as Scott and then Nick Bangay were penalized for minor infractions by referee Jack McEachern, but they couldn't beat Jack Harper. Stark and Watson tangled at 17.55, with George drawing a minor and Watson a major penalty. The shots on goal were 10-9 in favor of Markham, but Carr had the more difficult ones to handle and twice he out-guessed visiting forwards who had no one but him to beat. The Newmarket strategy worked well in this session.

Myles MacInnis, aided and abetted by Stark and Johnston, brought the crowd to its feet as, with Watson still in hoosegow, he banged home the equalizer. From there on the Vets forgot their pre-game lessons and tried to match strides with the Markies, which didn't work out.

Watson, on a three-man passing play, put Markham in front before 30 seconds had passed, beating Carr with a hard drive to the top corner. Play was fairly even

Aurora Lions Junior Team Shuts Out Newmarket 4-0

Junior O.H.A. hockey returned to Aurora after an absence of five years on Thursday night, and close to 400 fans saw Aurora Lions juniors score a shutout over Harry Thoms' Newmarket Redmen. The win left Aurora unbeaten to date, and in second place. The loss was Newmarket's third straight.

The game was much closer than the 4-0 score would indicate. The visiting firemen drove most of the shots from well out, or into Smith's pads. Chief difference in the two teams was the sturdy blue line defence work of Loring Doolittle, Jack Atkinson and Jack Andrews, and better back-checking by the Aurora forwards.

Ron Simmons opened the scoring for Aurora in the first period, the clever young forward converting Jack Andrews' pass into a drive that gave Grant Blight no chance. Jack Andrews handed out one of the hardest body checks ever seen in the local arena, as he cleanly floored Jack Davis, ace winger of the Newmarket team, when the latter had only one man to beat. Andrews, Nigh and Davis of Newmarket drew penalties for minor offences.

Aurora made it 3-0 in the second period, Andrews scoring unassisted on an end to end swoop,

Urge Development Of Individual--Dr. Boulding

Dr. C. R. Boulding was the guest speaker at the January meeting of the Aurora Home and School Association meeting on Monday night. He spoke on "Trends In Education, pointing out the influence of environment on children, and he urged parents to explain to children the nature of their environment. He said that behaviour must be explained to youngsters, rather than drilled into them. "The progress of children should be carefully watched at school. Every pupil has some particular subject in which he excels, and every effort should be made to see that his talents along this line are brought out, rather than endeavoring to make the child study things he is not suited for or interested in," Dr. Boulding said.

A medical survey across Canada has shown the need in the schools for a full program of immunization, dental care, nutritional needs, selection and training of suited persons as teachers, vocational guidance, and adult counselling, he said. His experiences as a medical officer in the army had shown him how much the Canadian educational system

Kettleby Circuit Has Good Financial Year

Kettleby circuit has closed one of the most successful years in its history, having reported a grand total raised of $7,500. This is the more outstanding when one remembers that there are not quite 100 contributing families and only 150 active members.

There are many highlights of the year's work. Perhaps the most remarkable offerings were from the small group at Pottageville. One year ago last September, there were but 15 resident members and ten contributing families. This small group has completed a new Sunday-school building, 22 x 44, bought a piano costing $195, shingled the church building at a cost of $90, bought and installed a furnace costing $300, paid $31.50 as its share of the pension fund levy, and paid the second highest amount ever reported for missions. It wound up the year with $316 in the various treasuries. At the annual meeting a grand total of $2,325 was said to have been raised.

Kettleby appointment received a great boost in the gift of a beautiful organ. Early in March, Raymond Marshall, on behalf of his mother, Mrs. J. A. Marshall, and his sister, Mrs. John MacDonald, and himself, presented to the Kettleby church a beautiful Minshall organ in memory of his father, the late J. A. Marshall, who for a number of years was recording secretary of the circuit.

In addition to the organ, the gifts of this congregation were noteworthy. It assumed $300 extra on salary, bringing it up to $1,800. It paid its pension fund allocation of $125, assumed and paid half of the cost of the new bathroom, which was $738, and raised its missionary money to $415. Altogether the congregation reported a little over $3,300 raised during the year, with balances in the various treasuries of $950.

Three things stand out in the work at Snowball. First, their large increase in missionary giving. This amounted to $169.50 to the general missionary fund—double the largest amount ever contributed by this congregation to this fund. Second, the interest, attendance, and offerings of the Sunday-school, under the able leadership of Wm. Davidson. Third, the rather phenomenal year's work of the Women's Association under the efficient leadership of Mrs. C. Copson. Early in the year the ladies decided to raise their money by talent money. Each member was given 50 cents to use and increase as she saw best. The results were amazing. Two of the ladies handed in $40 each, two others $20, while a total of over $300 was raised in this way. Altogether, the association raised $799.05, remarkable in such a small group. Glenville, with only nine active members and six contributing families, paid its salary in full, an increase of $100 over 1944, paid $96.50 towards the bathroom, paid pension fund allocation $31.25, and still had on hand at the end of the year $223.65.

The circuit raised for general missionary work $620.95. The presbytery levy was $300. It is expected that it will be $700 for the year 1947.

The circuit raised a grand total of $7,500, an increase of $2,500 over last year, and of $4,200 over two years ago. The various organizations carried over balances totalling $2,000.

In Memoriam
Jones—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Johnny Jones, who passed away January 14, 1944.
You're not forgotten, Johnny dear,
Or ever shall you be,
As long as life and memory last
We shall remember thee.
Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his wife and son Donald.

Jones—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Johnny Jones, who passed away January 14, 1944.
In all the world we shall not find
A heart so wonderfully kind,
So soft a voice, so sweet a smile;
An inspiration, so worthwhile,
A sympathy so sure, so deep,
A love so beautiful to keep.
His life was earnest, his actions kind,
A general hand and an active mind.
Anxious to please, loathe to offend,
A loving son and a faithful friend.
Sadly missed by mother, dad and brothers of Owen Sound.

Jones—In loving memory of a dear brother and uncle, Johnny Jones, who passed away January 14, 1944.
A beautiful memory, dearer than gold
Of a brother and uncle whose worth can never be told.
Alone, unseen, he stands by our side
And whispers, "Don't grieve,
Death cannot divide."
Deep in our hearts a memory is kept
Of one we loved and will never forget.
And though the years be many or few
We'll always be thinking, dear Johnny, of you.
Sadly missed by his sister Mildred, brother-in-law Ted and nephew Beverley, Owen Sound.

Morning—In loving memory of a dear mother and wife, Clara Mae Morning, who passed away January 19, 1946.
No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered. Since we lost you Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
Lovingly remembered by husband and family.

McGhee—In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Allan McGhee, who passed away suddenly January 19, 1946.
A beautiful memory, dearer than gold,
A brother whose worth can never be told;
Alone, unseen, he stands by our side
And whispers, "Don't grieve,
Death cannot divide."
Deep in our hearts a memory is kept
Of one we loved and will not forget.
Although the years be many or few
We'll always be thinking, dear Allan, of you.
Sadly missed but always lovingly remembered by mother, brothers and sisters.

McGhee—In loving memory of our dear father, Allan McGhee, who passed away suddenly January 19, 1946.
We little thought when leaving home
That he in death so soon would sleep
And leave us here to mourn.
We did not know what pain he bore,
We did not see him die,
We only knew he passed away
And never said goodbye.
Sadly missed and ever remembered by his sons and daughters.

McGhee—In loving memory of my dear husband, Allan McGhee, who passed away January 19, 1946.
His last parting wish I would like to have heard
And breathed in his ear my last parting word.
Only those who have lost are able to tell
The pain in the heart at not saying farewell.
God gave me strength to fight it
And courage to bear the blow,
But what it means to lose him
No one will ever know.
Sadly missed and ever remembered by his wife.

McGhee—In loving memory of our granddad who passed away January 19, 1946.
The rolling stream of life goes on
But still the vacant chair
Reminds the time, the voice, the smile
Of him who once sat there.
Sadly missed by his grandsons Ross and Charles.

Rogers—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Fred Rogers, who passed away January 13, 1942.
From our happy home and circle
God has taken one we loved.

Jesus doeth all things well.

Shanks—In loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. Albert H. Shanks, who passed away January 22, 1944.
Tonight the stars are gleaming
On a lonely, silent grave
Where sleeps in dreamless slumber
One we loved but could not save.
No one knows the silent heart-aches,
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief we bear in silence
For the one we loved so well.
Lovingly remembered by daughter and sons.

Woodcock—In loving memory of Pte. Howard Woodcock, killed in action Jan. 17, 1944.
A token of loving remembrance
Of a brother I shall never forget;
His memory to me is a treasure,
His loss, a life-time regret.
Lovingly remembered by sister, Jean.

Woodcock—In loving memory of Pte. Howard Woodcock, killed in action Jan. 17, 1944.
Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory fond and true;
Just a token of affection
And a heartache still for you.
More and more each day we miss you,
Though our thoughts are not revealed;
Little do they know the sorrow
That lies within the heart concealed.
Ever remembered by mother, father, sisters and brothers.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT '46
Recommendations were that the insurance should be increased from $35,000 to $54,000 on the Alexander Muir school and from $10,000 to $23,000 on the other two schools.
An increased coverage of $2,000 was recommended for the contents of Alexander Muir school, of $5,000 for the contents of the Stuart Scott school, and of $2,700 for the contents of King George school. Total increased coverage recommended for the contents of the three schools was $10,300. A motion was passed to increase the insurance to the recommended levels.
Mr. Bovair said that a new furnace had been ordered for the Stuart Scott school because the existing one had developed a hole that was causing a large amount of gas leakage. He said that the estimate for replacing the old furnace was as much as the cost of a new one. Mr. Jackson reported that part or all of the new furnace had arrived.
Mr. Jackson said that enrollment in the three schools now totalled 611 pupils, of which 316 were boys and 295 were girls. During the month of December there were 441½ days lost, of which 346 were lawful. There was an overall attendance of 95.12 percent, as compared to an attendance of 95.2 percent during November.
Dr. G. E. Case took advantage of the opportunity to express his pleasure at his association with Mr. Bovair on the school board and to thank him for his efforts. Mr. Bovair replied that he had enjoyed the work. "The things I have done on the board I have done because I wanted to do them and because I felt I owed a debt to the community." He said that he would assist the new board whenever his assistance was asked and he thanked the members of the board for their co-operation in the past.

GOOD NEWS FOR HOUSEWIVES
(Advertisement)
J. L. Spillette and Son announce that they will soon have on exhibition and for sale in Newmarket, the new Beatty Automatic Washer. This is good news for housewives because the Beatty Automatic does away with 95 percent of the manual labor previously needed to wash and damp-dry clothes.
The only labor required to operate the Beatty Automatic Washer is that of placing the clothes in the machine, adding soap and water, and turning a switch. Within a few minutes the clothes will have been thoroughly washed, rinsed and damp-dried, ready for hanging on the line. The Washer even drains and cleans automatically — no soap suds to clean out.
The new revolutionary feature of the Beatty Automatic is that the rinsing and drying is performed by hydraulic pressure. No installation costs are incurred in installing the washer in the home. It is vibrationless and can be used in the laundry, kitchen or bathroom without any special foundation. No special plumbing or water heaters required. The washer can be attached to taps as easily as a garden hose; and water can be heated on a stove if the home is not equipped with a water heater.
Simple construction is another feature of the Beatty Automatic. It has less than half the number of parts of an ordinary wringer type washer.

Mr. Renzius objected to the idea of putting on the concert with the idea of making money from it. "There is a definite chance that we would be accused of promoting under such circumstances," he said.
"We should charge only enough to defray expenses," Mr. Hall said. "It ought to be regarded as a parents' right for the music classes."
"In his estimates, Mr. Fowler does not take into account the costs of the arena," Mr. Jackson said.
"We should appoint a committee to go into the proposal from all angles," Mr. Renzius said. Messrs. Hall, Bastedo and Mrs. Mathews were appointed a committee.
Mr. Bastedo reported that because the recreation council had been unable to provide rinks at the three schools at the time intended, the members had decided to allow free skating time at the arena provided that the hours of skating could be staggered a little more than they were on Friday. Such staggering would allow the men to get the rinks cleaned up for others renting the rinks for hockey practices.
Mr. Jackson said that he would try to draw up a schedule satisfactory to both the recreation council and to the school board.
It was moved by Mr. Carter, seconded by Mr. Hall that the board order the usual amount of wood from the usual source.
Dr. G. E. Case made a motion of welcome to the new board members.
